DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Election is required under 35 U.S.C. 121 and 372.
2. This application contains claims directed to more than one species of the generic invention. These species are deemed to lack unity of invention because they are not so linked as to form a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1.

The species are as follows:

The many different species of Scutellaria, where the extract is obtained from (which part of the plant), if the excipient is added prior to administration step or not, if the extract is standardized and if so with what (baicalin and/or baicalein), if the extract is dried, if it is in a sachet or not, if the extract has excipient(s) in it and if so which one(s), does it have fillers in it, does it have a wetting agent and/or a surfactant in it. Applicant is required to specifically enumerate all of the species to be elected in the instant invention.

Applicant is required, in reply to this action, to elect a single species to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable. The reply must also identify the claims readable on the elected species, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered non-responsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon the allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP § 809.02(a).

3. The claims are deemed to correspond to the species listed above in the following manner:

Claims 26-34 all relate to the requirement and thus the species.

The following claim(s) are generic: claim 26.

4. The species listed above do not relate to a single general inventive concept under PCT Rule 13.1 because, under PCT Rule 13.2, the species lack the same or corresponding special technical features for the following reasons: of the reasons of record, the extract is known.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include (i) an election of a species or invention to be examined even though the requirement may be traversed (37 CFR 1.143) and (ii) identification of the claims encompassing the elected invention.

The election of an invention or species may be made with or without traverse. To preserve a right to petition, the election must be made with traverse. If the reply does not distinctly and specifically point out supposed errors in the restriction requirement, the election shall be treated as an election without traverse.
